

ANEEL DAY 1

OPEN

PROMPTER IN BLACK

- Welcome to Workday Rising 2017! Wow, look at this crowd
- It's great to be together again here in Chicago. And its very exciting to see how this community—really, this team has grown in the past year.
- Yes, we are a team here at Workday—Our customers, our partners, and the Workday employees.
- As a team, we all go further, together. And over the next four days, we are going to have fun along the way!

- So, it's fitting that we are going to kick off Workday Rising this evening with some very special guests who epitomize the concept of team.
- On a grand stage, they each reached success in their careers by understanding that great individual effort is secondary to being part of a great team.
- It's the difference between doing well, and doing something monumental.

- The first guest is my good friend and two-time NFL Super Bowl champion Peyton Manning.
- In addition to the Super Bowl wins, Peyton is a 5 time league MVP and 14 time Pro Bowl selection. Pretty impressive to say the least!
- And just this past weekend, the Indiana Colts retired his number and honored Peyton's impact to the team and to Indiana with a bronze statue in his honor.
- Perhaps what I admire even more about Peyton is the way he gives back to the communities he's lived in. Indeed, He and his wife, Ashley, created the Payback Foundation to help and support at-risk youth.

MORE

- That brings me to Peyton's father, Archie Manning, who also joins us here today.
- In addition to an amazing football career, Archie is a successful business man and philanthropist.
- He set New Orleans Saints passing records, played in two Pro Bowls, and was named the NFC Most Valuable Player in 1978.
- He's also led a very successful family in his sons Cooper, Eli and Peyton.

- To bring the conversation together, I'd also like to welcome Hannah Storm, an award-winning journalist, producer and director.
- Hannah Storm is a pioneer in the field of sports broadcasting for women and has interviewed many notable sports legends and celebrities.
- She is a published author, an advocate for children suffering from debilitating vascular birthmarks, and a mother of three.
- I'd now like you all to give a very warm welcome to Hannah Storm, Archie Manning and Peyton Manning.
